PRINCIPAL'S REPORT

Welcome back to Term 2! It will be a wonderful eleven weeks filled with many achievements.

The Mayor of Greater Dandenong, Cr Lana Formoso, visited Emerson yesterday. She is very supportive and encouraging in the way she admires our educational learning menu and school culture. Lana has a professional background as a teacher and has an in depth understanding of our school. It is wonderful to have a supporter like Lana serving our Greater Dandenong Community.

Congratulations to Omal T, our Middle School student, who was placed 12th in the Australian Under 16 Boys High Jump in Adelaide on Tuesday, 16th April. Omal cleared 1.75 m and was ranked No. 2 Victorian jumper. This is an amazing result. Many thanks to Chris Winter who made it all happen.

VALUE OF THE FORTNIGHT

We will continue our study of the value, Courage, next week.

Courage is important to practise because you will need it if you are facing a difficult situation or have feelings of being alone. Without courage, fear would be in charge. No one would try new or challenging things. People would only do the things that were easy for them to do.
